Announcement: 3DM Ranked 11th in “Technology Fast50 Japan”

This is to announce that 3-D Matrix, Ltd. (“3DM”) was ranked 11th in the “Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited Technology Fast50 Japan” ranking, which is a ranking by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”) and ranks companies in the Technology, Media & Telecommunications (“TMT”) fields based on their revenue (sales) growth rates. 3DM achieved a 175.8% sales growth rate over the past 3 years and was ranked 11th among the top 50 companies.

This ranking, regarded as a benchmark for growth and success in the TMT field, is the Japanese version of a program DTTL conducts globally in 20 countries and 3 regions, North America, Europe, and Asia-Pacific. Based on entries by companies in the TMT field, regardless of being listed or not, the top 50 companies with the highest revenue (sales) growth rates over the past 3 fiscal terms are ranked. For details please refer to <http://www.tohmatsu.com/fast50/2012/>.

[About Technology Fast50/Fast500]

Technology Fast50 is the Japanese version of a ranking program by global accounting firm DTTL, which ranks companies in the TMT field according to revenue (sales) growth rates over a 3 year period. The program focuses on companies’ growth speed by using revenue growth rate as its metric, regardless of its size. Both listed and unlisted companies can apply for this program. Companies who apply for Fast50 are automatically considered for “Deloitte Technology Fast500 Asia Pacific”. TMT field includes software, internet, computer and peripherals, life science, communication, semiconductor and components and electronics, and green technology industries.
